

Residence Life Housing Information Policies Procedures Handbook

Midwestern University

The following policies have been developed to facilitate a safe and comfortable living and learning environment. Living in a residential community requires the cooperation and understanding of every individual. It is important to recognize your rights and responsibilities as well as to respect the rights of others. Concern, mutual respect, and maturity are basic to the development of a community that can assist you in your personal endeavors and achievements. It is expected that you will make a contribution to the development of this community. In addition to these housing policies, you are responsible to abide by all University policies outlined in the Student Handbook.

If you have any questions about on-campus housing that are not answered here, please contact the Office of Residence Life at x3848.

For violations of on-campus housing policies that do not pertain to noise or alcohol, a three strike policy will be in effect to determine sanctions. The policy is as follows:

- 1st offense – strike 1: meeting with the Manager of Residence Life and written warning
- 2nd offense – strike 2: meeting with Manager of Residence Life, incident form filed with Dean of Students and housing probation
- 3rd offense – strike 3: complaint filed with Dean of Students, letter in permanent file and possible voiding of housing contract

The policy for violations of the noise and alcohol policies is as follows:

Noise Complaint

- First Offense Warning
- Second Offense $10.00
- Third Offense $25.00
- Fourth Offense $50.00
- Fifth Offense $100.00
- Next Offense: $500.00 penalty for breaking housing contract and immediate expulsion from student housing

All students, resident and non-resident, and their non-student guests who are present in the room that generated the complaint will be fined. Students will be responsible for the fines of their guests. Fines will be placed on the student's university account. All fines must be paid in order for a student to graduate. Noise complaints that involve alcohol will result in levying of a combined fine (noise plus alcohol

Abandoned Property

The University will not be liable for property left in the building after the student vacates or is expected to vacate at the termination of the contract. Residents must remove all personal property from the residence within 24 hours of withdrawing from the University, upon termination of this contract, or after their last final exam of the semester. The student grants the University the right to dispose of any property left by the student after the student vacates or is expected to vacate the premises, at the student's expense. Said disposal may be by means of donations or any other manner deemed appropriate by the University.

Activities

The Manager of Residence Life and the Resident Assistants work together to organize social activities for you. We encourage you to get involved!! Please see your RA or the Manager of Residence Life if you would like to assist in planning or implementing an event.

Aiding and Abetting

Any student or resident who aids and abets in the violation of regulations or who counsels or encourages the violation of any regulation will be deemed just as guilty as the actual violator or offender. These individuals will be subject to the same liabilities, consequences and sanctions as are prescribed for the actual offender.

Alcohol Policy

The University's policies on the possession and consumption of alcohol coincide with the municipal ordinances and state and federal laws. For students of legal drinking age (21 years or age or older), the University does not restrict the possession or consumption of alcohol in your private residence (your room or apartment) behind closed doors. Consumption of alcohol in public areas is prohibited. Public areas include residence hall lobbies, hallways, lounges, bathrooms, and areas outside the residence halls and apartments.

Alcohol may not be consumed in a room if a person under the age of 21 is present. Alcohol may not be consumed in a room when the door to the room is open. Kegs of any size are not allowed in the apartments or Residence Halls. If a keg is found, the student will have to empty the keg and the Residence Life Staff and Security will take the keg into possession. Violations of the alcohol policy will follow the sanctions listed on page one of the Residence Life Handbook.

Antennas and Other Regulations

Radio and TV antennas that must be fastened to the outside of the building, in any way, are prohibited. The installation or replacement of any equipment, materials, etc. outside of the room which may be deemed unsightly, dangerous, or otherwise undesirable by Housing Officials (e.g., outside aerials, clothes lines, bicycles, and items left on balcony area).

Apartment Agreement Information

Residents are required to sign a housing agreement each year to reserve an on-campus apartment. The housing agreement is binding for the entire academic year. This agreement may not be canceled while the student is enrolled at the University. Cancellation of this agreement, for any reason other than academic dismissal, after the commencement date of the agreement will require the student to be responsible for paying a $300.00 fee or you may be responsible for the apartment rate for the entire academic year. This requirement has been developed because the University only assigns on-campus housing to registered students. Vacancies that occur during the academic year cannot be filled. Students who cancel their agreement during the academic year are held responsible for the entire rent amount since it cannot be collected from a new tenant.

All appeals regarding the cancellation process should be directed to the Manager of Residence Life. A committee composed of University staff members will consider each appeal. Students considering an appeal should be aware that appeals will only be granted for unusual or extreme circumstances. Documentation supporting the rationale for cancellation (i.e., financial statements, medical excuses from your physician, etc) must be attached to this form. All appeals regarding the cancellation process should be directed to the Manager of Residence Life.

Apartments are for students only and usage of the school facilities may be used, but only with prior notification to the Manager of Residence Life.

Apartment Assignments

Returning students have preference in selecting their current apartment or another apartment during the Spring Re-application Process, generally held in March. New students may indicate an apartment preference on their application. Assignments are made in priority order, based on the date initial housing applications and deposits are received. Every attempt is made to honor student requests for special living options, specific roommates, or assignments. The Residence Life staff reserves the right to initiate a room change to accommodate a student with a disability in an adapted room. Renewal of the housing contract is not guaranteed and may be at the discretion of the Dean of Student Services.

Assignment changes are generally granted in extreme circumstances, when all other points of resolution have been exhausted. Please see the Manager of Residence Life to request an assignment change. Under no circumstances are students allowed to change their assignments without prior approval.

Students are encouraged and expected to communicate with roommates and surrounding neighbors. The Residence Life staff is trained to mediate any conflicts that may arise during the year.

Change room assignment when vacancies occur in a double room. If directed by the University, the remaining resident must consolidate with another resident. Refusal by the remaining resident to consolidate will result in an increased rate for single occupancy.

If the roommate discourages or fails to accept the occupancy of an assigned roommate, they will be subject to disciplinary action that may include relocation, fines, being charged additional rent, and/or termination of their agreements. If the residents fail to make room for new occupants, staff may consolidate or pack possessions and assess charges.

ARSON

Any student or resident who purposely and maliciously attempts to set fire to, or burns, or causes to be burned, or who aids, counsels, or procures the burning of any building in the on-campus housing system, or any of the furnishings or equipment in, attached to, or around such buildings may be subject to prosecution and heavy penalty under the laws of the State of Arizona and will be subject to disciplinary sanctions.

1. The penalties for committing arson and/or aggravated arson are severe. The Office of Residence Life reserves the right to immediately cancel the housing agreement and remove any individual found violating this policy. The individual will be referred to the Dean for Student Service for disciplinary action.
2. The Office of Residence Life is committed to preventing disruptive behavior such as this. The staff will work to identify and person(s) responsible for such a disruption should it occur. All students with

Bikes found in common areas or the apartments will be disposed or donated to a local charity.

Bulletin Boards

The material presented on the bulletin boards in your floor/hall or apartment area is designed to provide you with campus information. Notices posted on these bulletin boards are posted not only to keep you up to date on what is happening on campus, but also to keep you informed about on-campus housing notices concerning rules, procedures and important dates. Please read these materials frequently. Vandalized bulletin boards may result in disciplinary action. Students who wish to post personal notices (For Sale ads, etc.) must see the Manager of Residence Life for approval prior to posting.

All clubhouse equipment and appliances must remain in the clubhouse at all times. Do not store your personal food or belongings in the clubhouse.

Clubhouse Reservations

Residents may reserve the clubhouse for social or educational gatherings with the approval of the Manager of Residence Life. The resident who makes the reservation is responsible for any damages to the clubhouse building and/or furnishings that occur and will be responsible to pay all repair and/or replacement costs. The resident is also responsible to remove all food, personal equipment, and trash and replace the furniture to the standard setup before leaving the clubhouse.

Compliance with University Officials

Intentionally furnishing false information to University officials or the failure to comply with the direction of any University official, including Security Officers acting in the performance of their duties, RAs and other University staff, is prohibited.

Construction

We are a growing campus and within the last year and a half we have built four apartment buildings. With the space we have for more construction it may be something that you may see in the near future. Construction noise is a concern for every student, but we appreciate your patient and we are doing every effort to accommodate the student schedule. Again, please be patient and if you have any questions or concerns, direct all concerns to the Residence Life Manager.

Check-out

There are a number of steps to follow to help you check out properly, quickly and efficiently. These steps will also help eliminate or minimize any damage charges.

- ❖ Establish a check-out time with your RA (if your RA is not available any building RA can check you out) at least 72 hours before leaving.
- ❖ Thoroughly clean your residence.
- ❖ All personal belongs must be out of your room before you have a RA inspect it for the last time. Remember to check all drawers and closets.
- ❖ Check over your inventory sheet with a RA and sign it in the space provided for checking out. Give your room key (and your apartment mailbox key if applicable) to the RA. If you do not return your key, you will be billed for the cost of re-coring and re-placing the key.
- ❖ Failure to properly check-out of your residence will result in a $50 fine.
- ❖ If you do not check-out before 2pm on the “Last move-out date” on your housing contract, you will be fined $50.

Damages (Apartment)

Each resident is responsible for any damages that occur in their on- campus apartment during their occupancy. If damages are accidental, the resident is required to pay all repair or replacement costs. If the student has not taken responsibility for the damage(s) the student will be charged for replacement /repair costs after the apartment check-out has occurred. In cases where damages are the result of vandalism, the individual responsible must not only pay for all necessary repairs but will also face disciplinary proceedings.

A charge for replacement / repair costs is on file in the Manager of Residence Life’s office.

Damages (Public Property)

When hallways, bathrooms, and other public facilities in apartment complexes are damaged, we expect the assistance of the residents of that area to identify the individual(s) responsible. When the individual(s) cannot be identified, all residents will be required to pay a prorated fee of repairing such damages.

Decorating

Residents may not add any attachments of any type to an apartment light fixture, including paint, tissue paper, crepe paper, tinfoil or any other material. NO materials, whether flammable or non-flammable, may be suspended from, attached to, or draped beneath the ceiling. Residents may not add any permanent fixtures (including lighting fixtures), constructions, wallpaper, or paint to their apartment. Residents may not use nails or screws to hang objects from the walls. Residents may use 3M Command tape and hooks.

Disciplinary Procedures

The Residence Life staff is charged with enforcing and upholding housing policies. Students who are found to be in violation of any residence hall policy or procedure will be referred to the Manager of Residence Life for disciplinary action. In unusual or extreme incidents, the student may be referred to the Dean of Student Services for additional action.

The basic principles of due process will be followed in the disciplinary process. The first step is generally the filing of an incident report, which is done by a member of the Residence Life staff, Security, or another resident. The report is turned in at the Housing Office and referred to the Manager of Residence Life.

Students will be informed of the incident report and be given an opportunity to defend themselves or make their case to the Manager of Residence Life. The Manager will review the information available, the statement of the involved student (s), and make a decision.

In all disciplinary cases, the primary concerns are to hold people responsible for their action and protect the welfare of the students residing in the apartment complex. Sanctions, when imposed, are designed to emphasize the necessity that students change their conduct and use responsible behavior. Sanctions that may be levied on students include but are not limited to:

- Informal verbal warning
- Formal written warning
- Housing probation
- Housing re-assignment
- Revocation of privileges
- Monetary restitution
- Restitution through community service
- Counseling

The outside of all apartment doors, including the wall space around them, are considered common university property. All items displayed on doors must be appropriate for anyone to see or read. Inappropriate materials for posting include, but are not limited to, sexually suggestive pictures, jokes, articles, or any of the aforementioned that contain profanity or language that is offensive to any group based on religion, ethnic origin, race or gender. If you are asked to take down any material, you may still display it inside your room.

Drugs

All university officials, including housing officials, will assist and cooperate with law enforcement personnel as they perform their duties in controlling the possession and use of illegal substances on campus. Students convicted of violations of state or federal laws are subject to further disciplinary action by the University through the Office of Student Services in addition to any civil penalties imposed.

Emergencies

In case of emergencies, please contact Campus Security by dialing 623-572-3201 (or pick up one of the emergency phones). Give appropriate information such as type of emergency, location, phone number and any other information requested by Security. If the emergency is of an extreme nature, call 8-911 immediately. The Manager of Residence Life may be reached during the day by dialing x3848 and the RA on duty can be contacted by calling 480-258-3247 from 5:00pm – 8:00am daily to assist. For emergencies outside of On-Campus Housing, please use the blue Emergency Call Boxes located throughout campus.

Tampering, damaging, or inhibiting the use of emergency equipment in any residence hall is expressly prohibited. Residents may not use emergency equipment for any purpose other than emergency use. This includes the fire extinguisher, heat and smoke detectors, fire hose or water lines, fire doors, exit lights or panels or any other emergency equipment.

Energy Conservation

Anytime energy is wasted, we are contributing to the rising costs of living on campus. We encourage all students and staff to conserve electricity, water and all types of energy to keep costs down. Please be sure to turn off all lights when leaving a room.

Entry of Student Apartments

The On-Campus apartments are the property of Midwestern University. It is the policy of the University to ensure students' privacy in their apartments as much as possible without interference with the basic responsibilities of the institution to fulfill its educational functions and to conduct its day-to-day operations. The responsibilities of the University require the reasonable right to entry into student apartments for the following reasons: 1) To assure proper upkeep, (2) To provide for the health and safety of all residents of the on-campus housing facilities, (3) To investigate when reasonable cause exists to believe that a violation of residence halls or other university regulations is occurring within student apartments. As an occupant of an apartment, a student is responsible for its upkeep and is liable for damage to or loss from the apartment.

- No apartment will be entered without knocking/ringing the doorbell. Students will be given ample time to respond.
- Authorized personnel will enter the apartment with another member of the University staff if the student is not home and/or the circumstance is an emergency.
- If authorized personnel must gain access to a student's apartment when the student is not present, the student will be notified by email or a written notice upon their return.
- University and Non-University personnel contracted to perform maintenance, repair or other services on behalf of the college or resident may enter an apartment after first checking with the Manager or Residence Life.

False Bomb Threat Transmission Policy

Any student who knowingly and maliciously threatens the existence or placement of a bomb or explosive device in the apartment complex or adjacent areas will be subject to prosecution in civil courts and to serious disciplinary action from the University.

The penalties for the transmission of a false bomb threat are severe. The Office of Residential Life reserves the right to remove anyone found in violation of this policy from the on-campus housing premises and immediately cancels their housing agreement. In addition, the Glendale Police Department may pursue criminal charges against the individual(s) responsible.

False Fire Alarm Policy

Any student who tampers with or causes to malfunction any fire safety equipment (e.g., extinguishers pull stations, horns, alarms, exit signs, smoke detectors) is violating Arizona State laws as well as college policies. Violators of this policy will be subject to criminal prosecution, disciplinary action, and the cancellation of their on-campus housing contract.

The Office of Residence Life is committed to preventing disruptive behavior such as this. The staff will work to identify any person(s) responsible for such disruption should it occur. All students with information which can assist in this endeavor are encouraged to contact a residence life staff member or the Glendale Police Department.

Finals Week Quiet Hours

Twenty-four (24) hour quiet hours go into effect during finals week each quarter. Residents are permitted to remain in their residence hall room/apartment after completing final examinations up until the designated move-out day providing they maintain behavior appropriate for finals week and consistent with residence hall policies and University regulations.

Fireworks, Firearms, Explosives and Weapons

Due to concerns for fire safety and personal safety, both the possession and use of any item that might be classified under these headings is strictly forbidden in or around all University housing facilities. Violations of this policy can result in suspension from the University and/or eviction from University on-campus housing facilities. Eviction as a result of a violation of the fireworks, firearm, explosives or weapons policy will carry a minimum fine of $500.00.

Fire Alarms

Residents and their guests must evacuate all on-campus residential buildings upon the sounding of any fire alarm. Please follow evacuation instructions of the Residence Life staff and Security. Failure to evacuate during a fire alarm will result in disciplinary action.

Fire Evacuation Procedures

Participation in fire drill or a real emergency is mandatory by University policy and Arizona State law. At the signal of a fire alarm or smoke detector, everyone in the building or area is to leave IMMEDIATELY in an orderly manner. A student's full cooperation in the evacuation is required. Any student who fails to evacuate during a fire alarm will be subject to action by local authorities as well as disciplinary sanctions.

- A. If smoke or actual fire is seen within the on-campus housing facilities, pull the nearest fire alarm and/or immediately call 911. Give the requested information including your name, the name of the building, the floor number or area of the building and the circumstances surrounding the incident. If the fire is in a room, leave the room immediately and close the door. Pull the nearest fire alarm and evacuate the building immediately. Provide the necessary information to a residence hall staff member.
- B. Residents and their guests must evacuate the building any time a fire alarm sounds.

- C. In most circumstances the fire alarm will sound once a fire/smoke is detected, however, if you see a fire immediately dial 911 or Security at 3201. Once the fire alarm is sounded you MUST evacuate the housing complex immediately. The Residence Life Staff and Midwestern University Security will be on site to assist in any evacuation procedures. Residents living in Buildings A-D will be directed north of the fire lane by the Clubhouse; Residents living in Buildings E-L will be directed to go to the grassy area behind the Clubhouse. Residents living in building M-Q will be directed to the north side parking lot by the freeway as well as the clubhouse.

Please follow instructions of Midwestern University staff and Security during any evacuation.

It is the responsibility of the student to inform spouses/significant others and children of these procedures.

- D. USE THE DESIGNATED STAIR WELL TO EVACUATE THE BUILDING. IN CASE THERE IS SMOKE/FIRE IN THE DESIGNATED STAIRWELL, EVACUATE THROUGH AN ALTERNATE STAIRWELL. LOOK FOR SIGNS IN THE STAIRWELL FOR THE NEAREST ALTERNATE STAIRWELL.
If a fire alarm sounds for evacuation while you are in a room, first check the door. If the door is hot to the touch- DO NOT OPEN IT. If the hallways are filled with smoke and/or flames, stay in the room with the door closed. Seal spaces around the door with towels or sheets to keep smoke from entering the room. If smoke does enter the room, open one window slightly. Under these conditions only, hang something noticeable out of the window such as a towel or sheet. The screen may be removed to indicate your location to the Fire Department personnel. If a window cannot be opened, or if there are no window, remain close to the door. The best breathing air will be in the 18 inches above the floor. Never break a window unless it is absolutely necessary for your survival.
- E. It is the Resident Assistant's responsibility to inform the student of these procedure at the first building meeting and to answer any questions students have about evacuating the building. It is not the RA's responsibility to knock on the doors and ensure that everyone has evacuated. Resident Assistants are to assist the fire department with crowd control and other duties as assigned. Students are encouraged to immediately seek out a member of the Residence Life staff should they have any questions.
- F. In the event that a student becomes temporarily disabled and is not able to follow proper Evacuation procedures, he/she should contact the Office of Residence Life and request to be placed on the "Temporary List." Instructions regarding evacuation procedures will be provided to residents on the list.
- G. Students will be held responsible for University and on-campus housing policies during the Evacuation. Disciplinary action may result if a student does not abide by these policies while exiting or re-entering the building or while waiting in a designated location to be readmitted to the building.

Fire Safety

The issue of fire safety in University housing facilities is a constant concern. On-campus residents can help keep their home and their neighbors safe from fire by following all housing regulations concerning fireworks, explosives and use of electrical equipment and by following general common-sense safety standards. Any student who willfully compromises the safety of fellow residents by tampering with fire safety equipment or sounding false alarms will be subject to criminal prosecution, student disciplinary proceedings, and the cancellation of their on-campus-housing contract with a minimum fine of $500.00. See Appendix (C).

Guests and Non-Student Residents

Residents are responsible for the behavior and actions of their guests and should escort their guests at all times while inside university housing facilities. Guests must comply with all Midwestern University on-campus housing policies and procedures. For the safety of all the residents on campus, do not let non-resident students or non-students into the buildings. While it is acceptable to have visitors, visitors should not be full-time occupants of the on-campus apartments as that is a violation of the housing contract and disrespectful to one's roommate (where applicable). 'Living' is occupying an apartment more than 50% of the time when the student resident is present. Students with visitors who 'visit' more than 50% of the time may be asked to move to an area of housing where the housing contract allows for occupation of the unit by more than one resident. The student will be responsible for any cost increases resulting from a move.

Hall/Building Meetings

Meetings will be called from time to time in your building by your RA. These meetings are usually brief and scheduled when your RA has important information that needs delineated. If you are unable to attend the building meetings, be sure to contact your RA.

Handbook

Students who reside on campus are subject to all policies, procedures, rules, and regulations stated in this Residence Hall Handbook and the Student Handbook. It is the responsibility of on-campus residents to know the information mentioned in both publications.

Harassment Policy

The Office of Residence Life and Midwestern University neither condones nor accepts harassment, discrimination, and/or suppression of any person or group of any kind and will investigate all allegations of harassment. In accordance with the Sexual Misconduct policy in the Student Handbook, students and other members of the University Community who believe that they have been sexually harassed or the victim of sexual misconduct should refer to the Student Handbook and contact the Dean of Students, who serves as the Title IX Coordinator for the campus. Should the Office of Residence Life have evidence that an individual has harassed another student or group of students in the residence halls/apartments, the harasser may be relocated or removed completely from all on-campus-housing facilities at the discretion of Residence Life Staff and may also be referred for further disciplinary action to the Dean of Students.

Holidays

The University is closed during certain recognized holidays. (Please refer to the academic calendar for a list of these dates). However, the housing facilities will remain open for students who wish to remain in the apartments over holiday break periods. Students remaining in housing over a holiday break period must notify the Housing Manager of the dates they will be on campus. Students who stay beyond the terminal date on a housing contract are subject to per diem charges for housing.

Housing Rates

Fees for campus housing are billed quarterly and are due at the same time as tuition and fees. Rates are subject to change at the start of the new academic year starting in the summer quarter (June).

Housing Rates and Half Rent Discount During the Summer

If the student has entered into a lease agreement continuously effective for a minimum of two years, the student shall pay half of the rate per quarter amount for any given summer quarter covered by the agreement. Should commencement of this agreement take place after financial aid funds have been disbursed, the student shall remain responsible for fulfilling any of the financial obligations contained in the housing agreement.

Identification Badges

Photo Identification Badges (ID) are issued during orientation to students. Non-student residents residing in an apartment with a student must also have a Photo Identification Badge. The Dean of Students will work with Security to issue a Photo Identification Badge to a Non-student. Students and Non-student residents must wear their badges to gain access to campus and housing. Failure to provide proper Non-student resident identification may result in a member of the security staff requesting that the Non-student resident leave a University facility, denying the Non-student resident access to the University, or referring the Non-student resident to the Dean of Students.

If an ID badge is lost or damaged a fee of $25.00 will be required to replace it. If the ID badge is found after purchasing a new badge, the money will not be refunded. The old ID badge has been deactivated. ID badges can be replaced by Security in the Security office.

Students and Non-student residents should not:

- leave IDs on car dashboards due to the extreme heat
- punch a hole in the card due to embedded chip
- lend cards to anyone

Inappropriate Language/Behavior

Inappropriate or abusive language or behavior toward any student, college employee (including Security Officers) or guest will not be tolerated. Individuals who are found to be in violation of this policy may be subject to disciplinary action in accordance with the Student Handbook.

Insurance (Personal Property)

The Office of Residence Life is not responsible for loss of or damage to personal belongings. Students are encouraged to look into renter's insurance (not offered through Midwestern University) if they wish coverage in this area.

Keeping the Residence Clean

It is the student's responsibility to keep the apartment clean. Failure to comply may result in being subjected to weekly or monthly inspections. Further penalties such as eviction may apply if a student(s) fails to follow housing policy.

Keys

Apartment keys are issued to students upon moving into their on-campus apartment. These keys are the property of Midwestern University and are only loaned to the rightful occupants. Students may not loan or give out their apartment key. Keys must be returned upon checkout. The University will re-key an apartment door at any time. Keys are not to be duplicated. If you accidentally lock yourself out of your apartment, call Security to be allowed access to your room. You will be asked to provide proof of your identity before you are given access to the room. If you lose your key, contact the Office of Residence Life between the hours of 8:00 am and 4:30 pm, Monday through Friday. If you are locked out of your apartment after business hours, please contact the RA on call at 480-258-3247. Cost of replacing the key and re-coring the lock will be the student's responsibility.

Maintenance Concerns

Work orders are submitted by student residents through your student portal. Log into your student portal, click the academics tab and then search for tickets link. Once you click on tickets follow the prompts to complete the work order request. Make sure to enter the apartment number and be very specific on the work that needs to be completed. Students can submit several work requests in the same work order prompt. If submitting multiple repair issues, please number them down. Make sure to choose the AZ campus (AZ Maintenance).

If you live in an animal friendly building, please be specific of the time you will be home so that the Maintenance staff can plan on entering the apartment to make the necessary repairs while students are present.

Emergency maintenance issues will be handled immediately.
